The Workshop on Nursing Care and the Aging Society:
Applying the Current Knowledge and Technology to a Better Future

Date: December 10th Friday 2010
Place: Wissenschaftszentrum Bonn  (Ahrstr. 45,  53175 Bonn)
Language: German /Japanese (simultaneous interpretation)

First Half
13:00- 13:15: Opening, Welcome Addresses:
Deputy Mayor, Mrs. Angelica Maria Kappel, Federal City of Bonn
Deputy Consul General, Mr. Yasuyuki SOMA, Japanese Consulate General, Düsseldorf
Pd. Dr. Ursula TOYKA-FUONG, DAAD

13:15-13:20: Introductory Address
Pro-Rector Prof. Dr. Armin B. CREMERS, University of Bonn

Prof. Yoshiyuki SANKAI, Graduate School of Systems and Information Engineering,
University of Tsukuba

14:10-15:00: "Neuroethics, Neurotechnology, and the Challenges of an Aging Society"
Prof. Dr. Phil. Dieter STURMA, Institute for Science and ethics, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Bonn

Intermission
15:00-15:15: Coffee Break

Second Half
15:15-15:45: “Regulating Brain Function and Metabolism from the Clinical Aspects"
Prof. Akira MATSUMURA, M.D., Ph.D., Dr.med.Professor & Chairman, Department of Neurosurgery
Institute of Clinical Medicine, University of Tsukuba

15:45-16:15: “Regulation of Brain Aging by the Endocannabinoid System”
Prof. Dr. med. Andreas ZIMMER, Institute for Molecular psychiatry, Faculty of Medicine,
University of Bonn

16:15-16:45: “Mobility-Oriented Culture in an Ageing Society: Development of Scenarios for 2030”
Prof. Dr. Georg RUDINGER, Center for Cultures of Ageing, Faculty of Arts and Humanities, University of Bonn

16:45-17:25: Discussion

17:25-17:30: Closing: Prof. Shozo KITTA, Director, Department of Global Activities, University of Tsukuba

Conclusion
18:00-19:30: Reception

*Note
Concerning the keynote lecture of Prof. Sankai, I would like to inform you in advance to please kindly refrain from taking pictures or video during the segments where participants are wearing the Robot Suit HAL in his power point presentation. We are sorry to bother you with this request but I ask you to inform anyone who will attend the lecture.

Robot Suit HAL®